

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:08; sunset, 4:57.

Chas. Erickson killed. Train.

Wm. Nevin, 1510 W. Ohio, knocked from wagon end. Killed.

Mrs. Laura Farmer, Bellwood, freed of accessory to murder of Louis Lichtenstein. Husband held.

Small boy snatched purse of Mrs. Henry Angelo, Union hotel. $4.

Robert H. Sears, policeman, bankrupt. Assets, $324; liabilities, $487.

Rob Roy Ricketts' case in psychopathic court continued until next week.

John G. Ruel, pres. Ruel Lumber Co., sued for separate maintenance by Mrs. Florence M. Ruel. Non-support.

Armed man got $10 from Emil Kraus, 820 Wells.

Salary of 246 city employees of Evanston held. Appropriation kick.

Mabel Young, maid in home of C. J. McCoy, Oak Park, accused of taking three diamond rings.

Jos. Kuteck, owner of alleged Hinsdale "blind pig," fined $75.

George Vaux Bacon, newspaper man now in Europe, missing since Dec. 5.

Custodian placed in home of late Fritz von Frantzius to safeguard household effects.

Robt. Rusing, diamond broker, who was shot by wife Tuesday, wants divorce. Says she was untrue to him.

Frank Cavanaugh, 441 N. Halsted, drank poison by mistake. Died.

Mustering out of 7th regiment may be complete today.

Policeman Terrence McGrath shot and wounded Lawrence Keating, no home, whom he found sleeping in rear of The Hub.

Oiga Schaeffer, 1303 W. Chicago av., and Victor Odzesky, 1301 W. Chicago av., missing. Elopement believed.

Horace Burke, city foreman, caught in city water pipe extension graft, ran farm at city's expense.

Emory E. Jett, 6035 S. Peoria, sup't Morris & Co., divorced from Cordie B. Jett. Said she was unfaithful.

C. Jevns & Sons, grocers, going out of business. Believed they will be able to pay all debts.

5,000,000 white fish and lake trout deposited in lake off Waukegan by Illinois bureau of fisheries.

Restaurant licenses of "Billy" Skidmore, 1958 Lake, and H. E. Ewohn, 647 W. North av., revoked. John Strasser's saloon, 3530 S. Halsted, closed.

Isador Markus, I. Markus & Co., and Morris Kraus, Garden City Parlor Furniture Co., witnesses in Judge Landis' perjury probe, released on bonds.

Mrs. Veronica Beis, 1721 S. Union av., filed injunction suit to oust tenant, Jos. Wicsica, baker. Says he disturbs her.

Chas. Anderson, 52, 917 N. Franklin, fell on icy sidewalk Dec. 12. Died.

Fourteen people fell on slippery walks yesterday.

Mrs. Sadie Bolger, 33, 4118 S. Oakley av., accused of embezzling $1,000 by David Holtz, jeweler, 4738 S. Ashland av., drank poison. May die.

Grace Lynch, 14, Evanston, bitten by dog. Animal killed later.

W. J. Pringle, 11, graduates from Oakland public school today.

Illinois Society of Engineers planning state war on mosquitoes.

Wm. Buhrfeind, 50, 6411 S. Lincoln, ass't foreman Daily News pressroom, died from exposure. Fell unconscious in prairie Wednesday.

Eastland being made safe for naval militia use.

Chas. Dlamondon, Jr., son of manufacturer killed on Lusitania, appointed ass't state's att'y.

Geo. H. Graves, chief electrical engineer of sanitary district, resigned.

Robbers got $60 from Goldberg Furniture Co., 5936 S. Halsted.

Chas. Marundo, Evanston, whisky-crazed, attacked family and then de-